

Family or Retiree Home

This beautiful Florida home plan has huge transom windows to bring extra light into the home. The well-laid out floor plan is open concept so you can see from the vaulted dining room and living room to the kitchen and family room. Add an optional bay window to the breakfast nook to extend the space. All the bedrooms have vaulted ceilings too, making them feel larger. In the master suite, you have a walk-in closet, double sinks and a big corner shower.
